LAND OF LOST DREAMS

For Angila Tan and the Marymount Convent School Choir
Commissioned by Marymount Convent School

ABOUT THE WORK

The Land of Lost Dreams was written for the Marymount Convent School Choir and their Conductor and a very dear friend, Angila Tan.

The work depicts the lost dreams of our childhood that sparingly call out to us from the depths of our thoughts.

Every once in a while, we remember the memories that once filled our lives and inspired us to be who we are today.

I hope that through the music in this song, we recall our dreams that were lost to reality to remember why we fought for the things fought for, so that we might regain that passion in us to fight for it, once more.

TEXT

*Come forth onto the silv'ry shores
Listen, the ocean sings!
Soft breeze that sweeps so light
(The wind that whispers softly)
Listen! It speaks to you!*

*Voices! The mystic mountains!
The curious fallen dreams
(Could it be that once was lost is seen?)
The ripples of the forgotten world.*

Do you recall your song?
Memories from once upon a time
Echoes from where it belonged*

Awake! Awake from your slumber!

*Awake!
Awake and discover the lost dreams of time
flowing through the soul
Arise!
Ignite the fire of life!
What once was unseen in dark is now light
Hope is in sight!*

Find! Ignite! Seek the light! Faith in love! Fight!
